This is Jeremy Miller, your candidate for the Minnesota State Senate. As I travel across the district visiting with families, farmers, small business owners, and retirees...people seem to share the same concerns. They are simply fed-up, frustrated, and extremely worried about the direction our government is taking us. And it's time for the people's voice to be heard.

This is Jeremy Miller, your state senate candidate. We are approaching one of the most important mid-term elections in our country's history and we as citizens have a fundamental choice to make. Do we trust the people to make their own decisions, decisions of personal responsibility, success and opportunity and decisions on what is best for our children's future? Or should these decisions be handed over to the government so they can choose for us. Personally I trust the people.

This is Jeremy Miller, your candidate for the Minnesota State Senate. We are at a very critical time in our state's history, with a $6 billion budget deficit. And in order for our state to remain strong and vibrant, we must restore fiscal responsibility. Families and small businesses across our state have had to reduce spending and live within their means and it's time for government to do the same. We simply can't spend more money than revenues coming in. It's time to reduce spending and make our government more efficient.

This is Jeremy Miller, your state senate candidate. My two brothers and I were brought up on the values of hard work, respect, and honesty. If we wanted something, we had work for it, we had to earn it. If we didn't have the money, we didn't buy it. These are the values I will take with me to the state legislature. If you are fed up and frustrated with the direction of our government, let's join together and help make Minnesota an even better place to live, work, and raise a family. Together we can and we will make a difference.

This is Jeremy Miller, your state senate candidate. I'm running on a platform of listening and working together with the people, reducing wasteful government spending, and creating more jobs.

This election isn't about me and it's not about being a Democrat, Republican, or Independent. This election is about you and about listening and representing the people of southeastern Minnesota. If you're looking for a new direction in government, then let's join together and let's make a difference.

In 2006, the State of Minnesota had a $2.2 billion dollar surplus and just four year's later, we are facing an unprecedented $6 billion budget deficit. If you're tired of Washington style spending and if you're looking for a fresh face and new attitude, look no further. Jeremy Miller, your candidate for the Minnesota State Senate understands that our state can't spend more money than revenues coming in. Enough is enough. Jeremy is a small business owner and active community member who will bring a straight forward and common sense perspective to state government.

This is Jeremy Miller, your candidate for the Minnesota State Senate. As our local farmers begin to harvest their crops, I want to simply say thank for your hard work. Agriculture is the heartbeat of our local economy and I look forward to working together with our farmers toward new uses, new markets, and value added opportunities for our ag products. We have some of the best farmers in the country and we need to promote and celebrate that fact.

This is Jeremy Miller, your candidate for the Minnesota State Senate.

We are days away from one of the most important mid-term elections in our country's history and Senator Sharon Erickson Ropes and her supporters have chosen to play dirty political games and make personal attacks on me and my family, rather than discuss the critical issues currently facing our state.

Despite the personal attacks, my focus continues to be on making our government more efficient by listening and working together with the people, reducing wasteful government spending, and creating more jobs in the State of Minnesota.

This is Jeremy Miller, your candidate for the Minnesota State Senate. When it comes to politics, I'm here to offer a fresh perspective, see my background isn't in politics; my background is in business, accounting, and working to improve our communities. My experience is in making day to day operating decisions, balancing budgets, making a payroll, and working together with customers. It's time we bring real life work experience into government to help get our economy back on track and to create more jobs in the State of Minnesota.

I'm Jeremy Miller and I ask for your vote on November 2nd.

Stop me if you've heard this before...did you hear the one about the State Senator that was so out of touch with her constituents that she voted against $11 million for educational programs and facilities that would enhance student learning...instead she voted to spend $11 million on new cages for gorillas and polar bears at a St. Paul zoo. It would be funny if it wasn't so sad. Sharon Erickson Ropes put gorillas and polar bears ahead of our children's educational future. It's time for a fresh face and new attitude. Vote Jeremy Miller on November 2nd.
