Senate District 31 candidate Jeremy Miller files 2010 mid-year Campaign Finance Report
Friends for Miller reports over $22,000 raised in 2010

Winona, Minn.- The campaign of Jeremy Miller, Republican endorsed candidate for Minnesota's District 31 State Senate seat, recently filed its 2010 mid-year campaign finance report for the period ending July 19, 2010 and reported over $22,000 of cash contributions received in the current year and $15,946 of cash on hand.

"We're running a strong grassroots campaign, which is demonstrated by Friends for Miller raising more than $33,000 in cash contributions since Jeremy Miller announced his candidacy in May of 2009," said Angela McGowan, Miller's campaign manager.

"Area residents are fed-up, frustrated, and extremely worried about the direction government is taking them," said McGowan. "People support Mr. Miller and his commitment to making our government more fiscally responsible by putting people first, reducing wasteful spending, and creating private sector job growth."

"I am thankful for the gifts of time, talent, and monetary contributions donated to my campaign from people across Southeastern Minnesota," said Miller. "As we progress toward Election Day, I look forward to listening and working together with the people to help make Southeastern Minnesota a better place to live, work, and raise a family."
